Girls Chosen to Ride City's Float

Five teenage beauties will represent Sierra Madre on the 1951 Tournament of Roses parade float from this city on Jan. 1.

Names of the five local girls were announced this week by Al E. Morgan, float committee chairman. They are:

Dolores Hedwall, Nancy Fader, Diane Armstrong, Margot Woodworth, and Nancy Welch.

The coeds were selected by five service and civic organizations.

Miss Hedwall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hedwall, 417 N. Mountain Trail, was chosen by the VFW Post.

Miss Fader is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Fader, 166 S. Baldwin. She was selected by the Sierra Madre Woman's Club.

Miss Armstrong, chosen by the Civic Club, was the 1950 Wistaria Queen. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Armstrong, 57 Lowell.

The Kiwanis Club selected Miss Woodworth as its representative. She lives at 522 W. Sierra Madre boulevard and is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. R. Woodworth.

Miss Welch, 50 Montecito Court, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Welch. She was chosen to ride on the float by the Lions Club. Sallie Dewey, costume chairman of the float committee, said the girls will wear gowns of taffeta, net and sequin a different pastel shade. Marcella Carlson designed the costumes, and they are being made by Marguerite.

Financial Side Of Float Grim, Says Morgan

The "Horn of Plenty" still lacks plenty of money, punned Al E. Morgan this week as he told Sierra Madreans about the financial side of the city's 1951 Rose Parade Float.

"The float will cost $1500," the float committee chairman said. "So far, contributions have been very slow."

Mr. Morgan pointed out that Sierra Madre had a winning float last year and "we certainly don't want to settle for anything less this year."

He emphasized that it is a "people's float—not the city's." Therefore, the people must bear the burden of paying for it, he said.

Mr. Morgan announced that Sierra Madre's float will be driven in the parade by James Tyler, assisted by Jim Spears. The parade entry, depicting a floral "Horn of Plenty," was designed by Artist Alfred James Dewey. Donations should be turned in at the Bank of Sierra Madre.

NEWS STAFF TO TAKE 'TIME OUT'

The Sierra Madre NEWS office will be closed this week, Friday through Monday. We are doing this that the staff and employees may have a Christmas vacation at home with their families.

Mayor Asks Completion Of New Public Library

Mayor William A. Kinney last week called upon Sierra Madreans to "urge the completion" of the city's proposed new library building and memorial room.

Speaking at the Historical Society's Jubilee Dinner Friday night, Mayor Kinney invited citizens to petition the City Council to form a special citizens' committee "to augment and work with the Public Library Board" in accomplishing the program.

The Mayor pointed out that with spiraling costs, the $50,000 earmarked for the library's building program is not enough.

"None of us want to see the library project curtailed," he said, "but it will take more money now to do the entire job."

"We all want to see the Sierra Madre Room built as a memorial to Sierra Madre boys killed during World War II," Mayor Kinney stated. "I have no official word yet but undoubtedly, the boys who are

First 'Sample' Ranch Homes Being Built

Sierra Madreans are eyeing with interest—and not without a little envy and regret—activities going on in the Upper Hastings Ranch in the past three weeks.

Coronet Homes, Inc., land developers, are going ahead with the construction of their first houses. A spokesman of the firm said Tuesday that the first "samples" of the five varying models of dwellings will be completed "within five or seven weeks."

The corporation several weeks ago took out a building permit from the city of Pasadena for $1,050,000. The permit was for the first 277 of what eventually will total 800 homes in the tract.

Pasadena officials admitted, incidentally, that the permit ranked among the largest single building permits ever issued in their city.

Window Contest Cup Goes to Neale-Lunsford-Eaton Office

First prize in the annual Christmas Window Decorating Contest sponsored by the NEWS goes to the T. W. Neale-Gene Lunsford-Noren Eaton offices at 66 W. Sierra Madre boulevard. The joint real estate—accounting—and law offices will receive the 14-inch gold "Christmas Cup" trophy today, to be presented by Mrs. Ione E. Ward, NEWS publisher.

Last year, the cup was won by Fashion Future. The first Sierra Madre store or business establishment to win three years gets to keep the trophy.

Candles—of varying sizes and colors—were the dominating decoration in the winning office window, with Madonna and angel figurines forming the points of emphasis on both sides of the doorway. Red lights illuminate the nativity scenes. The display is unique in that a minimum of window space is used to the fullest possible advantage.

The judges selected Dumas Electric and Fix-It Shop as the second-place winner. A nativity scene again is featured with a Bible open at the Christmas story.

Third prize goes to the Dra-

Church to Dedicate Oils This Sunday

Oil paintings portraying the 14 "Stations of the Cross" will be dedicated Sunday morning, 11 o'clock, in the remodeled sanctuary of Church of the Ascension.

The paintings, set in red-wood frames, will become a permanent part of the church decorations. They depict the 14 events, in chronological order, leading up to the crucifixion. The first station shows the judgment of Pilate; the last painting portrays the descent from the Cross.

SANTA TO GIVE OUT STOCKINGS AT PARK

City Firemen Prepare for Annual Christmas Eve Event

Sunday, Dec. 24, at 7 p. m.—sharp! That's when Santa Claus will arrive at the city park to give out 900 Christmas stockings to Sierra Madre youngsters.

Mr. Claus will be brought to the park in a city fire truck.

Fire Chief James C. Heasley received a dispatch from Santa Tuesday in which he said he wanted to assure parents that there will be "no delay, no program, or no speeches"—by him or anyone else.

Mr. Claus explained that passing out of stockings will begin immediately after his arrival so boys and girls can get back to their families in time for their own Christmas Eve festivities.

Chief Heasley said the firemen, their wives, and friends will finish filling the stockings with candies, nuts, and other Christmas goodies tomorrow night.

A total 900 stockings are being sewn and filled this year—an all-time record., Mr. Heasley pointed out. Richley of California, tie manufacturers, cut out the stockings, he said.

Mr. Heasley stressed the fact that all Sierra Madre youngsters under 12 years of age are invited to come to the park and receive a stocking.

A part of the money received from the firemen's Annual Christmas Dance held last Saturday night is going toward filling the stockings.

Nida Resigns As Pastor At Bethany

The Rev. Clarence R. Nida has resigned as pastor of Sierra Madre's Bethany Church, ending a ministry here of three years and nine months. His resignation becomes effective Jan. 1.

The Rev. Nida has accepted the position of pastor at Emmanuel Church of Burbank, an interdenominational church similar to Bethany.

Sierra Madre church-goers will feel the loss of Mr. Nida, since under his leadership the Sunday School has nearly doubled in size. Size of the congregation at worship services also has reached near-capacity proportions.

A veteran of World War II, the Rev. Nida served for three years as a chaplain in the U.S. Air Force. At present, he holds a major's commission as an Air Force chaplain.

Mr. Nida and family reside at 296 E. Santa Anita Court. He is a member of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club. It is understood they will move to Burbank shortly after the first of the year.

In the interim before a new pastor is selected for Bethany Church, Dewey Mulholland will supervise activities at the church.

CITY TO READVERTISE FOR RUBBISH CONTRACT BIDS

In an attempt to solve Sierra Madre's rubbish disposal problem, the City Council this week decided to readvertise for bids for monthly pickup of combustibles.

At a special meeting last Tuesday City Engineer Harry Shatto was ordered to prepare three alternative bid proposals. They will be approved for advertising next Tuesday, and presumably bids will be opened January 9.

When Mayor William Kinney was asked about the proposed city dump north of Miramonte avenue, he replied: "We are still looking into all possibilities."

Around City Hall, however, the city dump in a residential area was considered something of a "dead issue" as a result of vehement protests from residents.

Here are the three alternatives that rubbish contractors will bid on:

1. A pickup service as in effect during the past two years, but without pickup of ashes as had been proposed for a new contract. Charge by the contractor of any amount in excess of the two cubic yards of rubbish monthly would be prorated under the contract.

2. The same service as in the first proposal except that residents will be required to put loose rubbish in containers and bundle (tie with twine or string) brush and tree trimmings that will not fit in a container.

3. Allow a contractor to pick-

Children Have 'Field Day' in Depot Snow

Complete chaos reigned for 2½ hours Monday afternoon, as the Kersting Court area was turned into a veritable "no man's land."

Although "casualties" among the militant participants were high, there were even more "wounds" inflicted among the refugees cluttered in store doorways.

The warriors quickly, but informally chose sides as the snow began to accumulate in front of the PE Depot. Even the workmen from the Pasadena Ice Company and California Consumers Corporation were not exempt from the deadly

Firemen's Dance Termed 'Best Yet'

Saturday night's annual Firemen's Christmas Dance was hailed by Fire Chief James C. Heasley as "the best one yet."

Sierra Madreans danced from 9 to 1 to the music of Herb Adkins and his 9-piece band. The dance was held at the Woman's Clubhouse.

Wearily dancers were served soft drinks during the intermissions, under the supervision of Chief Heasley, Bob Heasley, Bob Thomas, and Charles Brown.

Civil Defense Body to Name Block Wardens

The way was cleared last week for the appointment of block wardens for Sierra Madre.

At a meeting of the Civil Defense Council Dec. 13, Mayor William A. Kinney named a committee to help select the wardens which would help maintain order of a disaster should strike Sierra Madre.

Frank Spencer was appointed chief block warden by Mayor Kinney. He will be assisted by Carl Hansen, as first assistant. G. G. McMillan is chairman of the committee which includes other members, J. C. Heasley, Al Freeland and Lawrence Brain.

Block wardens will attend a meeting Wednesday, Jan. 3, at which instructions regarding their duties will be given. Their most vital immediate task will be to help explain civil defense pamphlets they are published and to get the Red Cross First Aid training program underway.

The Civil Defense Council was told that Monrovia has 650 volunteers for civil defense work, as compared with 50 in Sierra Madre. It was brought out, however, that volunteers are not desired for block wardens since the office is considered one of honorary selection.

Mayor Kinney said plans are being made to use the older Boy Scouts as runners in case of disaster. Carl Hansen, transportation chairman, said several station wagons have been offered by citizens for disaster use, but pointed out that a few more still are needed.

Chief of Police McMillan also reported that he still is short four volunteers as auxiliary policemen.

Several 'Cuts' In 'Annals' Are 44 Years Old

Appearing in the "Annals of Sierra Madre," book published and premiered last Friday night by the Sierra Madre Historical Society, are six or eight engravings nearly half a century old.

The actual copper "cuts"
first were used in an advertising brochure compiled in 1906 by the Board of Trade—organization known today as the Chamber of Commerce.

Now, after 44 years in the NEWS' files, the engravings are being put to use again, to show 1950 Sierra Madreans how things were in "the old days."

Historical Society's Jubilee Dinner Friday Attended by 200

More than 200 Sierra Madreans were on hand Friday night, Dec. 15, for the Jubilee Dinner of the Historical Society and the unveiling of the new book, "Annals of Early Sierra Madre."

For President C. W. Jones and the Historical Society, the dinner was the culmination of efforts beginning three years ago when the book was first proposed.

The guest list at the dinner was studded with the names of dozens of the earliest residents, and 80 of them sat at two tables reserved for citizens living here since before 1910.

Master of Ceremonies Lee Shippey, praised the work of the society in compiling the book and singled out many of the more prominent residents of the city.

Mr. Jones, who described the jubilee dinner as "one of the outstanding events of my life," acknowledged the people in the society most active in writing and editing copy for the "Annals." He led the dinner guests in a moment of silent prayer to the memory of the late Mrs.
Edith Blumer Bowen, who greatly assisted Mr. Jones and other editors of the book.

George Morgridge proposed a rising vote of appreciation to Mr. Jones for all of his "additional years of service to Sierra Madre."

Mayor William A. Kinney congratulated the society in completing the book and pointed out that Mr. Jones, as the first mayor of Sierra Madre, was responsible for starting the city's water works.

C. F. Shoop, supervising editor of a Pasadena newspaper and president of the Pasadena Historical Society, spoke on the value of the societies in community life. He praised the local group's efforts in keeping alive Sierra Madre's history.
"Quoting an ancient proverb,
Mr. Shippey told the Sierra Madreans that they should "never cease to praise the bridge that brought you over."

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Holt Gregory, the first boy and girl born in Sierra Madre, Mrs. Elizabeth Dietz, 93, and A. L. Hamilton, who pointed out extemporaneously that when he first came to Sierra Madre the atmosphere was "made to breathe."

PRIZE-WINNING BEEF BOUGHT BY ROBERTS MARKET

Boosting the selection of meats last week at Roberts

The beefs won first and sec-

nual Great Western Livestock

geles.

The steers were declared winners from among entries submitted by 4-H clubs and Future Farmers clubs throughout the nation. Father Flana-gan's Boys' Town also had beef entered in the show.

Clare Pesek, butcher at Ro-meat, said the market currently has the widest selection of "show beef" in Southern California.

Lutherans to Meet Twice On Sunday

"If Jesus Had Not Been Born," will be the challenging topic Sunday morning, Dec. 24, for the Christmas message of the First Lutheran Church of Sierra Madre and East Pasadena.

The Rev. H. W. Schmitt, pastor, will deliver the message at the worship service beginning at 10:45 a. m. at the Woman's Clubhouse.

Commenting on the subject Tuesday, the Rev. Schmitt said men are looking today for "men saviours" in this troubled world, but are forgetting the Old Saviour, Jesus Christ, who alone can save sin, death, and all the powers of darkness."

A Christmas program is planned for Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, featuring the showing of a colored slide strip, "The Child of Bethlehem."

Children of the church will take part in the service, and a Christmas treat is planned for youngsters, the Reverend Schmitt said.

'Hours of Destiny' Subject of Talk At Jewish Center

Rabbi Dr. Charles Steckel's subject tomorrow night, Dec. 22, will be "Hours of Destiny of Mankind."

He will speak at the regular Friday evening service at the Foothill Jewish Community center, 212 N. Lima. The service begins at 8:30.

Baptist Youths Will Present Play

Charles Dickens' ever-popular "Christmas Carol," will be presented tomorrow night, Dec. 22, by young people of the First Baptist Church of Pasadena.

The play will begin at 7:30 P. M. in the church gymnasium. Christmas selections will be offered by the Youth Choir, and all present will take part in the singing of carols. The public is invited.

St. Rita's Lists Masses For Christmas

Solemn Mass will be celebrated at 6:30 a. m. Christmas Day at St. Rita's Church, 318 N. Baldwin avenue.

Additional masses are scheduled for 8, 9, 10, 10:30 and 11 a. m., according to the Fr. Leo Scheibel, C. P.

The 8 o'clock mass will feature the singing of Christmas carols by the Children's Choir. Carols and other sacred music will be presented by the adult choir at the 11 o'clock service.

The annual Christmas Play was conducted by children of the church last Thursday night.

The Christmas spirit was depicted as seen through the eyes of Americans. In the play, American boys and girls visited children of other lands and exchanged ideas on what Christmas means.

High Midnight Mass Planned At Ascension

Festival procession and solemn high midnight mass will be celebrated Sunday, Dec. 24, at 11:15, as a part of the Christmas program at Church of the Ascension.

Fr. Harley G. Smith Jr., rector, said that as a fitting prelude to the solemn occasion, the service will open with a short "carol sing" along with the playing of several organ compositions expressly written for the Yuletide season.

The Senior Choir, under the direction of Harold Chaney Jr., newly appointed organist and choir director, will sing the Mass in D by George Oldroyd, a contemporary English church music composer.

For their anthem, the choir will sing "Behold, I Bring You Good Tidings," by Sir John Goss. A cantor and male choir will intone the ancient plain-song settings of the proper to the mass, as well as the Creed and Gloria in Excelsis from the plainsong, "Missa de Angelis."

Father Smith said the low mass and Holy Communion will be celebrated at 7, 8, and 9 o'clock on Christmas morning. And at 10 a. m., the procession, solemn mass, and benediction will be given.

The Junior Choir, composed of boys and girls ages 8 to 12, will sing the Mass in C by Arnold G. H. Bode, rector emeritus, and as an anthem will sing "Bethlehem," by Daniel Schubart. Patrick Sewall and soprano solos.

The service is particularly intended for children and families. Father Smith said.

Church Plans Two Services

Two services are planned for the observance of Christmas, Sunday, Dec. 24, at the Congregational Church.

At 11 a. m., a family Christmas service of anthems, carols, and meditation is planned, according to the Rev. Carl Smith, pastor. Special music will be presented by the Chancel and Chapel Choirs.

In the evening, from 11 p. m. to midnight, the traditional Midnight Communion Service will be conducted in the sanctuary. The service will feature choral music and the singing of carols by members of the congregation.

We invite everyone to join with us in these services of prayer and praise at this joyous Christmas time," the Rev. Smith said.

KIWANIS PLANS ANNUAL 'KICK-OFF LUNCHEON

The Kiwanis Club's annual Rose Bowl Kick-Off Luncheon will be held Friday, Dec. 29, this year at the site of the football classic it celebrates.

The move to the Rose Bowl is being made to accommodate more people than the Pasadena Civic Auditorium can hold. It was pointed out by John Biggar, luncheon chairman.

Formerly limited to male football fans, the event this year is open to fans of both sexes and all ages.

Dr. Smith To Speak At Bethany

A guest speaker will bring the Christmas message to the Sierra Madre Bethany Church Sunday, Dec. 24.

Addressing the morning service, beginning at 11 a. m., will be Dr. Wilbur Smith, one of the outstanding preachers in the nation and well-known author on religious subjects.

Formerly of Chicago, Dr.

Smith at present is serving in Pasadena at the Fuller Seminary.

Special Christmas music will be offered by the Bethany Church choir.

In the evening, 7:30, a Christmas Eve service will feature the singing of Christmas carols and a message by the Rev. Clarence Nida, pastor.

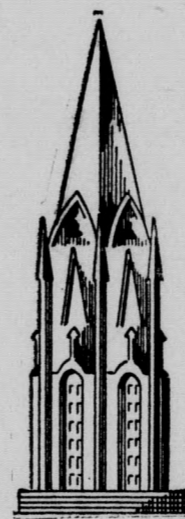

Last night, members of the church enjoyed their annual Christmas program. Representatives of the Sunday School departments presented a play. The evening ended with the singing of Christmas carols.

Nazarenes to Hear Sacred Yule Music

Sacred music sung by Prof. and Mrs. Earle Anderson will feature both the Sunday School and church Christmas programs Sunday morning at Church of the Nazarene, 191 W. Sierra Madre boulevard.

The Rev. O. G. Burlison, pastor, said the traditional Christmas Cantata will be presented at the evening service beginning at 7:30. The junior department is in charge of a portion of the program.

Christmas stocking treats will be distributed to children of the church during the evening, the Rev. Burlison said.

Louisiana Mother Says Housework is Much Easier

HADACOL Supplied Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin And Iron, Which Her System Lacked

Mrs. Leo Picard, Church Point, Louisiana, is mighty proud of her two daughters, Wilma Jean, 6 years old, and Juanita Marie, 4. She says it's a full-time job just keeping track of them. It wasn't too long ago when it was all Mrs. Picard could do to just barely get her work done. Now all that is changed—now that she has been taking HADACOL. Mrs. Picard found HADACOL helped her system to overcome deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron.

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the cause of nagging aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, and a general run-down, weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin but also helpful amounts of important Calcium and Phosphorus—elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come in Liquid Form There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These precious Vitamins and Minerals are more easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be a "Doubting Thomas" After reading Mrs. Picard's wonderful experience with HAD-ACOL—how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula will help you if your system lacks Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Picard it can do for you if you're troubled with nagging aches and pains, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress and a general run-down, weakened condition when they are due to deficiencies of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron.

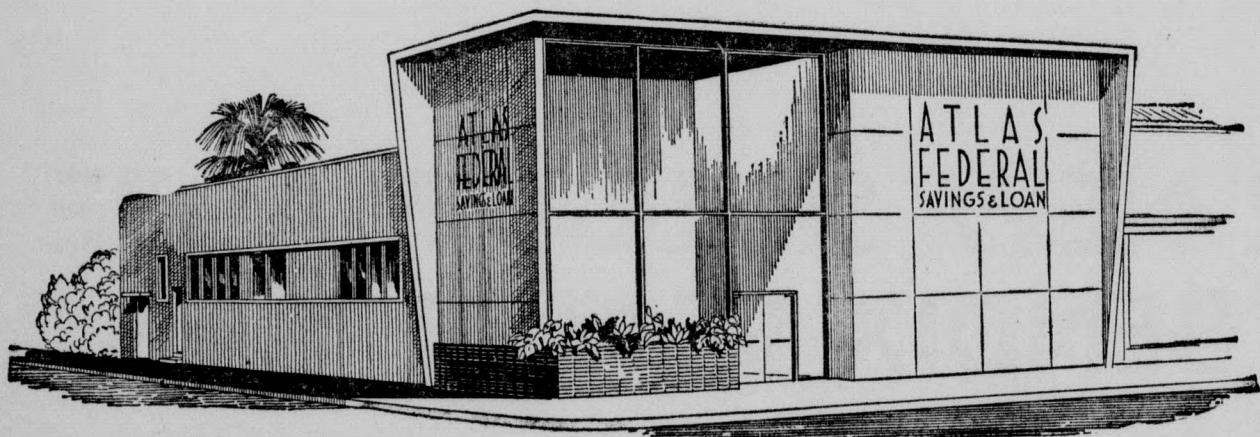

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you need—the kind you should buy and the kind you should start taking immediately!

Sold On a Strict Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful.

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be as close at hand as your nearest drugstore if you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron. This great HADACOL is inexpensive, too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size only $1.25. Large family or hospital size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.

6. 1906 motorist uniquely waters his car along El Camino Real (now U. S. 101), the first highway of California.
7. Motor travel over desert sands became a reality in 1914 when famed plank road was laid in Imperial Valley.
8. The 1915 version of the Ridge Route twisted and dipped in a reckless pattern.
9. Most hazardous motor trip was Club's Central American caravan in 1931 to explore feasibility of International-Pacific Highway.

Local Youths To Play With All-City Band

Seven Sierra Madreans are among the 15 boys chosen from the John Marshall Junior High School advanced band to play in the Pasadena All-City Band when it takes part in the Tournament of Roses Parade on Jan. 1.

The local boys are Larry Ballenger, trumpet; Sam Bradshaw, clarinet; Barb Draeger, trombone; Fred Penn, clarinet; Malcolm Pennock, trombone; Dean Pennock, trumpet; and Buddy Webster, baritone.

The All-City Band recently appeared in the Junior Rose Bowl Parade and played during the Boise-Long Beach football game. On New Year's Day, they may be distinguished from other junior high school bandsmen by their gold and white uniforms.

Judge Takes License of Racing Youth

City Judge John C. Mead got tough with speeding motorists recently.

He suspended for 60 days the driver's license of William Gerald Annas, 75 N. Lima, for allegedly conducting a "speed contest" on Sierra Madre boulevard, between Auburn and Baldwin.

Officers said Annas, 18, was racing with another car which got away when they moved in for the arrest. The youth stated that he "was not actually racing" and protested the sentence as "unfair."

Judge Mead pointed out that an alternate sentence probably would be a jail term.

FIRE FLAMES

There are no words to express the gratitude of the men of the Fire Department for the wonderful reception of the residents of our town during the time of the annual drive for funds to carry on the Christmas activities.

It does appear at times as though these donations for this and that sort of get under the skin. No one realizes this more than those of us who are in the public employ. However, it's a case of "you scratch my back, and I'll scratch Yours."

None of the men object to the work connected with the annual distribution of the Christmas Baskets and the other festivities of the season. It is truly a great pleasure and the attitude of the residents adds much to this enjoyment.

From now until after the Yuletide holidays — the fire fighters will have much to keep them away from their firesides. The wives too will help. There are 900 stockings to be cut, sewn, and filled for the Tree and Treat at the Park on Christmas Eve. This requires more than 400 pounds of the best mixed nuts plus the other articles to fill the sacks to the brim.

We are very thankful to the men at the Richley Tie Factory for their kindness in cutting the stockings from the roll of netting. The value of that help can only be realized by those who have tried to cut by hand, one at a time. There are so many stockings to be cut — we would appreciate an offer from those who will be willing to sew for us.

And yet we have the fire problems to contend with — problems which are never forgotten. The recent rains have reduced the fire hazard very much. Still we cannot become careless.

The inside of the homes still are to be considered and must be kept clear of fire hazards. Watch the cupboards for an accumulation of materials that burn. A poor place for cluttered flimsy clothing to be looked at

Hub Cap Thief Shows Good Taste

The Christmas spirit was dampened somewhat for Clyde A. Soeten last Wednesday, when two of his hub caps were stolen.

Mr. Soeten, 3333 Paloma, Pasadena, had parked his car on Alegria, between Baldwin and Auburn, to attend the Christmas party at St. Rita's Church. When he returned to his car at 9:30, the hub caps were gone.

The thief was discriminating, however, and knew quality when he saw it. The two rear hub caps — which are "stock" or factory built — were left untouched. He wanted only the more decorative front discs.

by striking matches. If there is not a light in the cupboard, always use a flashlight. Keep the children away from open fires, especially on the morning of Christmas when they arise in full nightclothes that are extremely inflammable.

missiles. According to reports, there was no "winning side." The snow storm had been arranged by the Chamber of Commerce as a special feature of their Christmas program at the PE Depot.

A few courageous Christmas shoppers, presumably misled by the "Peace on Earth" sign adorning the little country church, ventured down Kersting Court in search of holiday gifts. A barrage of snowballs quickly discouraged their attempted breakthrough.

A mediator, police Officer Paul Bird, tried to enforce a "cease-fire" order, but was himself forced to retire from the field after several direct hits.

Elliott Ellenson, fifth-grade teacher at City School, also attempted a peaceful settlement—or, at least, a slackening of hostilities. But the youngsters seemed to sense that this was Christmas vacation and teachers were definitely "in season" targets.

Mrs. Russell G. Dumas had the most success in controlling the mayhem. She introduced a "secret weapon"—raincoat, boots, and storm hat. In spite of this added protection, Mrs. Dumas was not completely impervious to the icy balls and reported one or two bruises.

As the snow turned to ice, the Fire Department stepped in to end the battle. They sluiced the ice down the drains with fire hoses.

Chamber of commerce President Al Morgan and Secretary Edna Hewitt both sighed and snow storm was even more of a success than they had hoped for. A total 14,700 pounds of ice was used in the storm,—donated by the ice company and sprayed by an authentic movie-land snow machine.

CITY TO READVERTISE

up in the city and collect individually from each householder for any service rendered. Under such a bid the collector would have to specify the maximum amount he would charge per cubic yard of rubbish picked up.

Two contractors had proposed that any contract include an "escalator" clause tied in with the U. S. Bureau of Labor cost of living index. The Council however, rejected such a proposal.

Councilman Herman Barter pointed out that private contracting with individual property owners for rubbish pickup under a city franchise is practiced in Arcadia and also on Altadena (county territory). Generally, this plan is more expensive.

Such a plan would also work a hardship on residents of the Canyon area where they are prohibited from using incinerators and papers are picked up once weekly.

As for placing loose combustibles in containers and bundling bulky trimmings tied, City Attorney T. Guy Cornyn pointed out that most other cities require this both to reduce costs and for cleanliness.

The Sanitation District's "Rawn" Report on refuse collection specifically points out that this "containing and bundling" of rubbish would be a requirement for all residents if the District's plan were adopted.

When the Council last month found itself with only a single bid for collection and Rubbish Contractor Ben Kazarian suggested that this requirement be made to cut down costs so that the bid could be reduced, the council passed it off.

At a subsequent Council meeting Mayor Kinney declared that it was "ridiculous" because it would take "too many man-hours a month" on the part of residents.

It was understood that at the next meeting the Council would specifically instruct City Engineer Shatto to send invitations to bid to all contractors in the area. The single unsatisfactory bid last month resulted from the fact that contractors were not adequately notified of the proposed contract.

CARE Offers Gift Solution

CARE, non-profit government-approved organization for shipping food packages to people overseas, claims it has solved the problem of "what to give somebody overseas for Christmas."

The answer, according to CARE Director Donovan Pedely, is a turkey dinner. Simply give an overseas address to CARE at 217 W. 9th street, Los Angeles. He says delivery is guaranteed.

CARE is prepared to ship packages containing a 7-pound turkey plus all the trimmings or a complete turkey dinner for 12 people for only $15.50.

giving their lives in Korea also will be honored in the room." He pointed out that without additional money, plans for the Sierra Madre Room possibly will have to be eliminated. Besides serving as a memorial, the room would house many of the treasured documents and paintings of Sierra Madre and would serve as a meeting place with a seating capacity for as many as 300 people.

The Chamber of Commerce has been sponsoring nightly programs all week at the decorated PE Depot. On Monday, the largest crowd ever to attend one of the Christmas programs heard carols sung by the Ascension School Choir and met Santa as he gave out candy canes. Dance students of Sally Clark presented several dance acts.

The International Band from Queen Anne's School in Los Angeles presented yuletide numbers Tuesday night. Led by Cardell Bishop, the band includes 45 musicians, all between the ages of 8 and 16. It was to have been featured at this week's meeting of the Lions Club, but the local Lions surrendered their program so more citizens could hear the band.

Last night, Christmas music was supplied by the Senior Choir of the Congregational Church.

Tonight's program is the last one scheduled by the Chamber, Edna Hewitt, secretary, said.

Thimble Club Has Annual Yule Dinner

Members of the Canyon Thimble Club held their annual Christmas dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Richardson, 707 Woodland Dr. A pleasant evening was spent in singing Christmas carols, making records, and "just plain visiting." Nearly all members and husbands were present.

neers" stepped in. Just who was responsible for decreasing the number of light poles—for the sake of "economy," of course—is not quite clear.

Presumably, it was the property owners in the district who are footing the bill. Since they are paying, it certainly is their right to put, or not put, the lights anywhere they choose.

But it is hoped that immediate steps will be taken to correct the situation in the heart of the district. Several courses of action are possible:

Install at least one additional light standard in the Kersting Court area. Preferably, it would be erected at the northeast corner of the Depot island.

Increase the size of most or all the lamps from 6000 lumen to 10,000 lumen. The standards are such that the different size bulbs can be substituted without changing the sockets. As quoted from the Edison rate schedule, the cost per lamp per month would increase from $3.49 to $4.67 for the larger bulbs.

A third suggested alternative is to trim or cut down the pepper trees. Such action, in our opinion, would be out of the question inasmuch as it would be vigorously opposed by nearly all Sierra Madreans.

It seems incongruous to us that the pepper trees, which have been here for nearly 50 years, should suddenly be blamed for the blind spot in the lighting system. The trees were here when the "engineering" was undertaken.

Whatever the solution, the NEWS hopes action on it is taken immediately—now, while the proverbial iron is hot.

A Navajo Indian baby enjoys itself. Picture is from the new sound-and-color motion picture, Window on the Sky, just released for use in churches by the National Council of the Episcopal Church. It is the story of a Navajo returned from military service, his meeting and surmounting of problems and tragedies; and the help given by the Good Shepherd Mission, a boarding school and orphanage operated by the Episcopal Church at Fort Defiance, Arizona. In the film, actors are completely inexperienced Navajos, who manage to make a professional film of great beauty, simplicity and feeling.

City Adopts Wage Scale For Employees

A new job classification and wage schedule for city employees was approved at a special meeting of the City Council Tuesday night.

A resolution putting the schedule into effect will be adopted next Tuesday with the effective date Jan. 1.

Assuming a 48-hour working week, city laborers will receive from $215 to $230 a month; maintenance men or crew foremen will get $225 to $240 a month; pump foremen will get $220 plus living quarters; assistant superintendent of water and streets will earn $270 to $285; administrative officer will get $270 to $285; and assistant administrative officer will get $260 to $275.

Water, street, and park foremen will earn $235 to $250 a month, as will the city building inspector. Stenographers and clerks will be paid $185 to $200.

In the Police Department, on the basis of a six-day week, the chief will receive $325; two sergeants (of which Sierra Madre has none) would receive $280; and patrolmen will receive from $245 to $270 a month, with a raise of $5 from the $245 for each six months of service.

The councilmen threw out a suggestion that the Police Department's work week be computed on a 54-hour basis.

Councilman Herman Barter said he personally could not reconcile himself to admit that the policemen work 54 hours a week when their lunch hours are included in that.

It was pointed out, however, that nearly every other city in the county operates under the pay-although-eating system. It is assumed officers still are on duty and their prowl car radios on even though they are eating.

No Baseball Game Sunday

Sunday afternoon's regular semi-pro baseball game at the city ball park has been cancelled this week, VFW Raider Manager Larry Shepherd announced Tuesday.

At least four of the local ballplayers will be working at the Post Office all day Sunday, helping out with the Christmas mail.

Mr. Shepherd said the next game is scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 31, when the Raiders are to meet the Crescents 20-30 Club. The Crescents manager has stated that he will pitch Ray Shulte, former San Diego rookie, against the Raiders.

The last time here, Shulte was put in as relief pitcher and held the VFW to 2 hits and 2 runs in 4½ innings.

SERVICES FRIDAY FOR MRS. DOOLITTLE

Funeral services will be held tomorrow, Dec. 22, at 11 a. m., for Mrs. Charlotte Olive Doolittle, 274 Mariposa, who passed away December 18, after a lengthy illness.

The services will be held at Grant Chapel, the Rev. Carl Smith officiating.

Eighty-seven years of age, Mrs. Doolittle was a native of Jamaica, Vermont. Her husband, Edmund B. Doolittle, died in 1943.

She is survived by a stepson, Herbert E. Doolittle of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, and two nephews, Arthur and Lee Read of Texas. Mrs. Doolittle was a member of the Sierra Madre Congregational Church.

Interment will be beside her husband in Mountain View Cemetery.

Churches Should Oppose Total War, Group Decides

Churches have the responsibility of opposing total war, members of the Congregational Church Women's Fellowship study group decided at their meeting last week.

The Sierra Madre women emphasized that there is "a profound moral difference between the limited use of force for defensive purposes and the unlimited use of force which means total war." They recognized, however, that organized resistance to injustice and disorder is "inevitable."

While opposing total war, churches must stand for measures which will constructively improve living standards, social welfare, political strength of nations still free, and demonstrating new methods of fighting evil.

The women expressed the belief that efforts of the UN to make a better world "accomplish far more than we know" because news emphasizes political discussions more than humane achievements.

They cited brotherly acts of GIs in Japan and Korea as gaining more goodwill than all the army tactics possible.

Subject of the discussion was "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men, as of 1950."

Open House For Modern Structure

With the opening of its new building yesterday, Atlas Federal Savings and Loan Association celebrated its fourteenth year of service and growth. The modern office building just completed at 720-722 E. Colorado street, Pasadena, at the Oak Knoll corner, marks a notable achievement in the association's progress.

A unique feature of the premiere of the ultra-modern building was the invitation issued to 200 men who worked on the construction. They were invited to attend with their wives and families so that each man could see how his work had contributed to the finished building. On the following evening the association held open house for its friends and customers.

Smith Spends Night in Jail-- But as Guest, Not Prisoner

After an absence of more than a year, Frank Elmer Smith came to town last Friday.

And, as is almost always the case when Mr. Smith visits Sierra Madre, he spent the night in jail. He slept in the city jail Friday night as a guest, however, not a prisoner.

"This has been going on for more than 14 years," Chief of Police Gordon G. McMillan told the NEWS. "Frank is a professional hobo and, of course, has no home. We have sort of an understanding with him when he comes to town he can sleep in the jail."

Chief McMillan pointed out that Mr. Smith never has been arrested in Sierra Madre, although he has a minor police record of several vagrancy charges in other cities.

The chief said the jail door always is left unlocked when the 75-year-old hobo is being boarded.

"It serves a double purpose," he explained "Frank gets a free bed for the night—and we know where Frank is."

He pointed out that many cities have similar "arrangements" for hobos, provided the cities are not on regularly-traveled railroad lines. In the latter type of city, the jail soon would be overcrowded with tired hobos.

"The word just seems to get around by a hobo-grapevine as to which cities will give them a bed and a roof over their heads for a night."

Mr. McMillan said Frank has been "stopping in" since before 1936. Recently, however, the visits have become less and less frequent as old age overtakes him.

"We thought that possibly Frank had gone the way of all mortals after the absence of a year," the chief said. "But he popped up again Friday—considerably slower and more bent by arthritis than we had ever seen him."

Chief McMillan sent Frank on his way Saturday morning with a dollar bill from his own pocket.

"When you're older, it's harder to get odd jobs and earn a little money—even for a hobo," the police chief summed it up.

Queen Eleanor, who was selected from more than 3,000 contestants, majors in commercial art and is planning a career as an artist or teacher. She stands 5 feet 6½ inches tall, weighs 117 pounds and has blue-green eyes. Eleanor will ride with her court of six comely princesses at the head of the Rose Parade in Pasadena next New Year's Day on a beautiful flower-covered float.

COMPANY FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Even without looking at the calendar we know that the holiday season is here. There is a new gaiety in the air as the crowds hurry along to do last minute shopping. The windows of the shops are lighted as they are at no other time of the year.

Of course, you'll want to have company during this gay holiday season. But when? Perhaps Saturday night is your best time for entertaining, or maybe a Sunday brunch will be easy for the girl who works. Maybe the answer is a quick supper to precede or follow a favorite movie. Take your choice and do it in your own way, but do have your friends in and have fun during the holidays.

Perhaps these suggestions will help.

Citizens Toil On PE Depot

Several dozen Sierra Madreans turned out, Sunday Dec. 10, to help decorate the PE Depot.

Work on transforming the structure from a station to a quaint little country meeting house began shortly after 9 a.m., and the last of the volunteers had not left by 6 p.m.

Chamber of Commerce President Al E. Morgan, who supervised the day's toil, said the following residents did "outstanding work" in decorating the station:

Manuel de la Torre, John Osti, Jack Moffett, Harold Spears, Francis Danielson, Doug Dickson, Thomas Schwartz, Mrs. Schwartz, Syd Westphall, James Hatfield, Mrs. Frances Gentry, Lucille Eaton, James Tyler Jr., Bob Crowell, Bob Green, Barbara Gilbert, Owen Edwards, Ruby Edwards, Oleta de Campo, Arthur and Edna Hewitt.

More than a dozen boys and girls also helped throughout the day, Mr. Morgan said.

RAIDERS CHALK UP 24th VICTORY IN GAME NO. 31

Extending their season record to 24 wins and 7 losses, the Sierra Madre VFW Raiders toppled the Hilers Red Raiders Sunday afternoon, by a score of 8 to 2.

The victory made it 22 wins for the last 25 games. The game was unusual in that there were only three hits for extra bases made by both teams—two by Hilers and one by the Sierra Madreans. It was the first game that the local team has not blasted at least two doubles.

Fast fielding on both teams prevented the ball from getting through for extra bases. Fielders were chalked up by Schaefer and Dixon for the home club and by Centerfielder Priddy of the visitors. Stueve pitched the VFW to victory, allowing only four scattered hits. He experienced a little trouble with six walks, but bore down with men on bases.

The Sierra Madre ballplayers collected 12 hits from Pollack, pitcher for the Hilers team. Treon, left-fielder for the visitors, and Jason, short-stop for the locals, each belted home runs. Jason's homer was his second while playing in a Raider uniform. He is a comparative newcomer to the team.

'The Piper' Play Opens

With a play parade of special holiday footlight attractions, Pasadena Playhouse virtually becomes a Yuletide Boulevard for the Christmas season.

Leading the procession will be the major attraction, "The Pied Piper of Hamelin," from "The Piper," by Josephine Preston Peabody, which opens tonight, Dec. 21.

The annual Playhouse puppet show is slated for the Patio Theater on Dec. 20, 21, 22, and 23, with three performances daily.

Theater Organizes Play-of-Month Club

Formation of a "Play-of-the-Month" organization was announced this week by Pasadena Playhouse.

Headed by a committee of 50, the group will begin functioning after the first of the year, offering playgoers choices in Broadway hits and new playbills. Organization of the club is viewed by Playhouse directors as a "new stimulus" to the honorary State Theater of California.

SADDLE NOTES

Arcadia's Mounted Police annexed another trophy, in the form of a lovely plaque, for their showing in the Glendora Christmas parade. I have been informed by the secretary of this fine group, who is none other than our good friend Mr. Happy, that the entire troop has been invited to attend the Mardi Gras in New Orleans. Early this next Spring with free transportation for their mounts. It will be a 12-day event. Therefore, a special meeting of the Mounties is being held this week to determine just how many can make this trip. And if a sizeable number can get away for that length of time, they will accept the offer. The deadline of acceptance is this Friday, Dec. 22, so get your heads together boys and let's ride. Good luck, hope you go.

BIRDS OF A FEATHER

On Dec. 8, 9 and 10 at Manhattan Beach, Warren Peterson one of our local feather-busters, competed in the State Badminton Tournament and showed some of the boys a rough time up to the semi-finals. In this bracket Peterson had some bad breaks and was defeated before reaching the finals. This was tough luck as we expected him to add this trophy to his already nice collection, such as, the California mens' "B" flight singles, the California mens' "B" flight doubles, and many others now in his possession. I hope in the future to be able to give advance notice of these tournaments, so any of you who wish, may see some of our local badmintoners in action.

DOWN THE LANES

Local Bowlers Eat Well. If our local pin busters could handle a bowling ball like they handle a knife and fork, they would never lose a match. The annual bowling banquet of the Monrovia Elks Summer league was attended by more Sierra Madreans than any of the others, could have been called Sierra Madre Bowling Banquet. Looking around the tables I saw the following familiar faces: Mr. and Mrs. Pop Froehlich, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Valencia, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Murphy and Mr. Clay Noshier. A lovely dinner was served with dancing following for a few hours. After ruining several pairs of the fairer sex's shoes, we motored back home to attend the Firemen's Ball.

SHUFFLING ALONG

A group of Sierra Madre shuffleboard players motored to Whittier Dec. 16, to play a match with the Whittier shufflers, who acted as hosts. The courts were in excellent condition and the games got under way, with 3 sessions of a ½ hour each. There was lots of good humor and wit among the players and spectators alike. There were 65 players and spectators at the match. The following Sierra Madreans played some nice games: Robt Smith, A. J. Bates, Forest Palmer, Alex Mitchell, Russell Stubbs, John Ogden, John

EXPLORERS BEAT SEA SCOUTS IN ANNUAL GAME

In the second annual "tails" football game between Explorer Post 108 and Sea Scout Ship 1, the Explorers won by a score of 25 to 19.

The grid "classic" was played last Sunday afternoon, Dec. 17, on the City School playground.

ON THE FAIRWAY

From all indications the Firemen's Ball Saturday night caused the corns and bunions of our local golfers trouble for sure. Only three putters ventured out on the fairways at Brookside and according to their scores, they must have been walking on their hands and knees. Andy Liscomb had a card of 88, Ed Keating a 90, and Jerry Fairfield limped home with 99. It must have been fate or should we say luck that caused the annual tournament at Ingleswood to be postponed until after the first of the year. I shudder at the thought of what the local score card would have read had the postponement not been made.

This being one of the toughest Tournaments of the season I now feel safe in saying our local golfers will be up there again when the match is finally played. Hit 'em straight and roll 'em true, fellows. We'll be watching you.

QUICKIE

The foundation of happiness is confidence, and to you, whose confidence I treasure, I sincerely wish a Christmas of great joy and a New Year of happiness and prosperity.

North Dakotans To Honor Band
Former residents and friends of North Dakota will pay tribute to the Grafton (North Dakota) Municipal Parade Band at a special picnic Sunday, Dec. 31, at Sycamore Grove Park in Los Angeles.

The Grafton Band, as special guest of the Tournament of Roses two years ago, won first-place honors over all other participants. It is the only "outside" band ever invited to the second time to participate in the Rose Parade.

Judge Mead Rules Law Unconstituti'al

Sierra Madre's City Judge John C. Mead ruled last week that the controversial anti-gambling ordinance passed in Los Angeles Sept. 13 is unconstitutional.

Presiding in Department 30-A of the LA Municipal Court, Judge Mead sustained a demurrer filed on behalf of a Los Angeles man who was arrested after pulling from his pocket a list of names of friends with which he assertedly made bets on football games.

Judge Mead stated that the ordinance is "lavish with its prohibitions" and appears to be "unreasonable" inasmuch as the sale of betting markers is perfectly legal. The misdemeanor charge against the man was dismissed.

Police Nab 4 Youthful Dope Suspects

Two Sierra Madre officers were being praised this week for their alertness early Thursday morning in nabbing four marijuana suspects while on routine patrol.

Officers Paul Bird and William White arrested the quartet shortly after midnight at Michillinda and Alegria where they were parked in a car. On the floor of the auto was a cluster of brown pods, green and brown stems, police said. Lying on the ground beside the car was a towel wrapped around five brown paper cigarettes.

Arrested were one 17-year-old San Gabriel youth and the following: Ray O. Garcia, 24, of Alhambra; Joe Ton Chavez, 18, Wilmar; and Anthony Lopez, 19, of San Gabriel.

Police said all four denied possession and knowledge of the marijuana. Garcia and Lopez were booked and jailed overnight at the Sierra Madre City Jail.

Subsequently, all four were turned over to the narcotics detail of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office, Chief Gordon G. McMillan said.

Army Cancels 10-Day Leaves

Ten-day Christmas leaves for former Sierra Madre National Guardsmen now on active Army duty at Camp Cooke, Calif., have been cancelled, it was announced last week.

The Army will continue training through the Christmas holidays at all camps in the United States—except on Christmas Day and New Year's Day.

Hope was still held out, however, that at least some of the local soldiers will be granted special leave if they can be spared by the camp commander.

Previously, the Army had announced that it would suspend training from Dec. 23 through Jan. 1.

Bowers Serves Aboard Tender

William E. Bowers, radioman third class in the U. S. Navy, is serving aboard the destroyer tender U. S. S. Dixie in Far Eastern waters.

The Dixie is fully equipped with machine, woodworking, battery, and electrical shops and a forge. These facilities make possible repairs at sea.

Bowers lives at 686 Brookside Lane.

Official Cities Subsidize Other 'Unincorporated Cities' in Area

Sixty-nine "unincorporated cities" in Los Angeles county were subsidized to the extent of $9,600,000 last year by the 45 official cities in the county.

Sierra Madre's share of this subsidy was $10,560—based on this city's assessed valuation for last year of $5,350,305. Sierra Madre's valuation amounts to .11 of 1 per cent of the county's total assessed valuation.

A taxpayer in Altadena, Bellflower, Downey, East Los Angeles, Lakewood Village, Sun Valley, or Temple City had about one-fifth of his property taxes paid for him by some other taxpayer living in Sierra Madre, Pasadena, Los Angeles, Long Beach, or any of the other official cities.

If the taxpayers in the unincorporated cities had to pay for all their own services on the same basis as those in the official cities last year, they would have paid 99.4 cents more per $100 assessed valuation, or $21.97 on the average home. The taxpayers in the cities would have saved 19.9 cents per $100 assessed valuation, or $4.38 on the average home.

These are some of the facts and figures revealed in a report presented Dec. 13 to the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles County Division, League of California Cities, meeting at the Huntington Hotel in Pasadena. The report was compiled by 14 sub-committees of the General City-County Committee.

Acting promptly to do something about correcting this glaring tax inequity, the division directors endorsed a program of the state league to seek state legislation which would prohibit the furnishing of municipal-type services to unincorporated urban areas out of the general fund of the county, and to require the persons and property benefited to pay the cost through some form of special district or by annexation or incorporation.
